STATUTES and RULES, relating to the Inspection and Use of the BRITISH MUSEUM; and for the better Security, and Preservation of the same: by Order of the TRUSTEES.

 HIS Museum, tho' chiefly designed for the use of learned and studious men, both natives and foreigners, in their researches into the several parts of knowledge; yet being a national establishment, founded by by Authority of Parliament, it may be judged reasonable, that the advantages accruing from it should be rendered as general as possible. But as it is of a more extensive nature, than any other before established, it doth require some particular rules and restrictions relating to the inspection, use and security thereof, suited to the nature of its institution; the different quality of the things, of which it consists; and such attendance of the Officers, as may be justly expected from them. Therefore the Trustees of the British Museum, at a General Meeting assembled, do hereby make, constitute, and establish the Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances following, viz.

I.

The times when the MUSEUM is to be kept open.

1. THAT the Museum be kept open at the hours mentioned below, every day throughout the year, except Saturday and Sunday in each week; and likewise except Christmas-day and one week after; one week after Easter-day and Whitsun-day respectively; Good Friday, and all days, which are now, or shall hereafter be, specially appointed for Thanksgivings or Fasts by Publick Authority.

2. THAT between the months of September and April inclusive, from Monday to Friday inclusive, the Museum seum be opened from nine o'clock in the morning till three in the afternoon ; and likewise at the same hours on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in May, June, July, and August ; but on Monday and Friday, only from four o'clock to eight in the afternoon, during those four months, except at the times above excepted.

II.

And if he shall judge them proper, he shall direct the Porter to deliver Tickets to them, according to their request, on their applying a second time for the said Tickets.

2. THAT no more than ten Tickets be delivered out, for each hour of admittance; which Tickets, when brought by the respective persons therein named,
